Barrington Cultural Arts Center Newsletter Aug-Sept 2010

Joyce was profoundly influenced by Monet's "Haystacks" and the "Parliament of London." She knew then that art was to be her lifelong passion. Joyce is drawn to shadow and light, to fog on mountains, sunlight through a window—in short to all beauty as it is found in nature. Joyce describes her painting style as tending toward realism, but as she paints, she finds the subject speaks to her suggesting changes. She prefers to work in oils, which provide her with more possibilities, depth, texture and style. Joyce has studied at Layton School of Art in Milwaukee and Mainstreet Art Centre in Lake Zurich. She has exhibited in numerous shows and her work is in private collections throughout the U.S.
